

Sara Meike

Finance, Public Affairs & Energy Sector Executive

Professional Summary

Respected figure in Indonesias finance and public affairs landscape, with a diverse portfolio spanning public relations, government relations, banking, and international mining, mineral, and gas industries. Proven ability to bridge government policy and private sector innovation, enhancing national economic infrastructure.

Professional Experience

Private Banking Pioneer - Leading Indonesian Bank

Played a pivotal role in the establishment of Indonesias first private banking services. Enhanced personalized banking standards and connected private capital with national development goals.

Public & Government Relations Advisor - Various National Policy Campaigns

Advised on major campaigns to improve national quality of life. Served as a bridge between state institutions and private investors.

Strategic Advisor Energy & Natural Resources - Southeast Asia Mining & Energy Firms

Led governance and regulatory strategy on high-risk, high-value projects across Southeast Asia. Provided counsel on international compliance, licensing, and investor relations.

Key Skills

- Public & Government Relations
- Private Banking Development
- Policy Communication
- Regulatory Compliance
- Strategic Project Governance
- Mining, Mineral, and Gas Sector Expertise